

Dashboard

Last Modified on 09/12/2018 2:49 pm EDT

The dashboard provides a way for you to view key details about the sales workflow and your team's performance using widgets. You can create multiple dashboard widgets to display the information you need (for example, view leads by region). Managers can view performance widgets for all employees in their department(s) while employees can only view widgets for their own performance.